

Kerry Keilty Memorial Award

Presented each year to a member of the FASA Hotspurs.
Sponsored by FASA Hotspurs & Team Sports

A donation will be made to either the Keilty family or Duke University each year in conjunction with the award. The club will donate a minimum of $200 (each team can contribute more as an option).

Program Details:

Colby Ciccone will be the Program Director and select a committee of 3 – 5 members to determine the recipient each year.

Nominations:

Each team will be allowed to nominate one person
Club Officers can also make nominations

The Award will be given to one of the following...

“Volunteer of the Year”

“Coach of the Year”

“Manager of the Year”

“_____ of the Year” (this can be anything i.e. “treasurer of the year”) – as this award is open to all FASA members / coaches / managers / volunteers / officers / etc.

Each nomination will be filled out using the nomination form. The winner will be selected based on the committee reviewing the contribution(s) of the individual to the club or their team.

Starting in 2005 nominations will be due in November (by the 15th) and the award will be presented at the December board meeting. For 2004 – we will accept nominations through the end of the month – and the award will be presented at the February board meeting.
